

The courthouse rises in an area east of downtown where old warehouses, a highway overpass, and railroad tracks set the character. The city hopes the new courthouse will serve as a catalyst for redevelopment. The entry facade (this page) engages the street with glass and a grand stair.

